

Program Outcomes of the Department of Public Relations and Publicity

Aim: Our department aims to train public relations and publicity specialists who are proficient in communication skills and can create effective and efficient communication environments. They can manage public relations processes within a sustainable framework and develop interactive environments by gaining the acceptance, support, and trust of stakeholders. They are sensitive to human, societal, and environmental issues, prioritize the public interest, and adhere to the ethical codes of the profession. Additionally, they emphasize scientific and analytical thinking and possess strong critical thinking skills.
